INDEX OF ARTICLES 1989

JANUARY 1989

Tradition Shapes Fulbright & Jaworski Offices. Staffelbach Designs & Associates designed added space for the growing international law firm. pp. 48-55.

Andersen's Neldon Builds An FM Department from Scratch. Development of a facilities department at Andersen & Co., Atlanta, parallels Christine Neldon's rise to facilities director. pp. 55-59.

Pru Exercises the Power of Agreements. Carmen Pucciariello, senior purchasing agent at Prudential, specializes in buying agreements. pp. 60-63.

Does An Electronic Network Lurk Under Your Carpet? Flat wire, flat cable, and their connecting devices do away with spaghetti tangles. pp. 64-65.

Bold and Beautiful Carpet Tiles Offer Flexibility. FMs can manage soil, stain, and wear only where they occur. pp. 66-67.

Systems Furniture Makes Flexibility Easy. Freestanding and connectable open plan furniture simplifies moves, maintenance, and management. pp. 68-77.

Association Reports: IFMA. p. 25.

CAFM Printout: FM Automation: Now—Or Never? p. 31.

Lighting Update: Space Station Freedom's unusual lighting. p. 33.

Real Estate: Electric company blossoms in Portland Trade Center. p. 35.

Previews: Global Conference. p. 38.

Editorial: Testing Your SQ. p. 47.

FEBRUARY 1989

Superb Teamwork Forges 'Age Proof' IBM Center. Legorreta Arquitectos and PHH Neville Lewis work together on a marketing/tech support center. pp. 48-55.

Let Your Fingers Cool Your Workspace. Johnson Controls has come up with a prototype that will put HVAC controls into the hands of each employee. pp. 56-59.

Not By Ergonomics Alone. By Michael J. Smith and Pascale C. Sainfort. Research finds close ties among the physical ergonomics of the office, worker health/safety, and employee control of tasks and electronic monitoring. pp. 60-61.

Stress: The FM's Survival Guide. By Allen Elkin. Facilities managers hit the Top 10 on the stress scale. A savvy stress specialist tells you how to cope when pressures pile up. pp. 62-65.

Keeping Office Air Fit to Breathe. Proactive monitoring may be the surest way to safeguard employees' health from indoor air pollution. pp. 66-69.

Real Estate Execs Relate Asset Management Methods. Roundtable focuses on tracking corporate real estate and reporting its market value. pp. 70-74.

Directory '89: Seventh Annual Update. Alphabetical listing. pp. 79-94. Classified listing. pp. 98-138.

Carpet Update: Off-gas may be more than a nuisance. p. 27.

New Technologies: Why not a company-wide E-mail system? p. 31.

Previews: WestWeek. p. 37.

Editorial: Personal Controls, At Last. p. 47.

MARCH 1989

Kosair Children's Hospital Touts Tech & Toys. Appealing to the child patient, the Louisville hospital was designed by FKP, Inc. pp. 44-51.

A Med Center's Intensive FM Care. Sandra Seim juggles CT scanning and HVAC systems at Rush-Presbyterian-St. Luke's in Chicago. pp. 52-55.

Down With Office Mazes, Up With Flexible Grids. By Darrell de Tienne. Making the office workplace a more workable, and cost-effective environment. pp. 56-59.

Carpet: A Hot Ticket for Hospitals. Carpet in patient areas is esthetically pleasing and cuts maintenance costs. pp. 60-63.

Better Data is a CAFM Bonus, Says User Survey. Preliminary findings of a comprehensive survey of FMs and their applications of CAFM systems. pp. 64-65.

Treat Your Guests to High-Style Seating. Comfort-catering reception rooms and waiting lounges. pp. 66-75.

Real Estate: Landauer Forecast: CBDs may not be hot spots. p. 23.

Lighting Update: Why lighting solutions fall short of the design mark. p. 31.

Previews: IFEx89; Lighting World; OPUG; Canadian FM shows. p. 35.

Editorial: FM is Spanning Oceans. p. 43.

APRIL 1989

Venerable Aetna Revamps With High-Tech. The insurance giant has constructed a generic workstation footprint. pp. 48-55.

Aetna's CAD/CAFM Is Loaded With Muscle. A CAD/CAFM system keeps renovation on track. pp. 56-57.

Good News: The FM & Business Planning Gap is Closing. Six corporate pros examine the state of facilities management, exploring challenges of the 1990s. pp. 58-63.

Plugging Into The High-Wire '90s. Wire management options offer quick connections and trouble-free moves. pp. 64-67.

The Latest In Seating Combines Comfort With Style. Seating lines from task to secretarial to managerial. pp. 68-77.

New Technologies: ISDN is poised for global link via twisted pair. p. 25.

Carpet Update: N.Y. State smoke toxicity testing is a good idea. p. 29.

Association Report: BOMA. p. 37.

Previews: Facilities '89. p. 41.

Editorial: Be Prepared; They're Listening. p. 47.

MAY 1989

Hewlett-Packard Center Stands for Customer Support. Dale Durfee of Hughes & Durfee, Architects, integrates customer service and support departments. pp. 62-69.

Fast Growth Keeps First Chicago Hopping. Robert Olson acquires a full-service FM computer that designs space, inventories, and tracks wire systems. pp. 70-72.

They Drink Beer, Don't They? By Franklin Becker. Exploring the practices and procedures used abroad for possible use here. pp. 73-75.

NEOCON: Hurtling Toward the '90s. Preview of program, products, and floor-by-floor listings. pp. 76-79.

CAFM Printout: When and how to automate maintenance operations. p. 33.

Real Estate: NACORE examines issues in view of political climate. p. 39.

Lighting: Controls cut bills and improve worker output, says study. p. 45.

Previews: BOMA. p. 51.

Editorial: Life in the Farina Bowl. p. 61.

JUNE 1989

Noble Center Turns Sunlight Into Savings. Oklahoma State U's addition is a fully modern research facility and a lab of advanced solar energy techniques. pp. 50-57.

Merging Banks? Expect Real Estate Reshuffle. Real estate departments merged when Bank of New York took over Irving Trust. Robert De Siena details how each is being used. pp. 58-61.

Next Wave for BAS: Diversified Intelligence. The danger of building automation systems operating from a master control is computer collapse. The answer: diversifying the controls. pp. 62-65.

Yes, There Are New Ways to Trim Lighting Bills. Reducing your lighting load. pp. 66-70.

Relocatable Walls: Sorting Out the Jargon. Wall system definitions. p. 71.

Relocatable Walls Source Guide. pp. 72-79.

NEOCON Goes Around the World in Four Days. At the Merchandise Mart, international seminars, keynotes, and furnishings. pp. 80-85.

New Technologies: The lowdown on UPS for steady clean power stream. p. 29.

Carpet Update: Patterns are hot, and it's only the beginning. p. 35.

Previews: ASID conference; Atlanta summer markets. p. 43.

Editorial: Put Out Those Lights! p. 49.

JULY/AUGUST 1989

Sweetening the Deal: Tools of the Trading Room. Seven trading rooms offer an overview of the contemporary trading environment. pp. 50-57.

Salomon Keeps a Tight Rein on Real Estate. Laura Horstman, leasing/administrative manager, keeps on top of investment banking giant's costs. pp. 58-61.

CAFM: It's Poised for Take-Off. User survey proves automation is of great value, even though some users are dragging their heels with low budgets and lame excuses. pp. 62-67.

Carpet's Life-Cycle Cost Is Not Clear-Cut. Accurate life-cycle costing is much more helpful when comparing broadloom and carpet tile costs against churn rate. pp. 68-69.

Support Furniture for the Computer-Equipped Office.

(continued on p. 46)

INDEX OF ARTICLES 1989

JANUARY 1989

Tradition Shapes Fulbright & Jaworski Offices. Staffelbach Designs & Associates designed added space for the growing international law firm. pp. 48-55.

Andersen's Neldon Builds An FM Department from Scratch. Development of a facilities department at Andersen & Co., Atlanta, parallels Christine Neldon's rise to facilities director. pp. 55-59.

Pru Exercises the Power of Agreements. Carmen Pucciariello, senior purchasing agent at Prudential, specializes in buying agreements. pp. 60-63.

Does An Electronic Network Lurk Under Your Carpet? Flat wire, flat cable, and their connecting devices do away with spaghetti tangles. pp. 64-65.

Bold and Beautiful Carpet Tiles Offer Flexibility. FMs can manage soil, stain, and wear only where they occur. pp. 66-67.

Systems Furniture Makes Flexibility Easy. Freestanding and connectable open plan furniture simplifies moves, maintenance, and management. pp. 68-77.

Association Reports: IFMA. p. 25.

CAFM Printout: FM Automation: Now—Or Never? p. 31.

Lighting Update: Space Station Freedom's unusual lighting. p. 33.

Real Estate: Electric company blossoms in Portland Trade Center. p. 35.

Previews: Global Conference. p. 38.

Editorial: Testing Your SQ. p. 47.

FEBRUARY 1989

Superb Teamwork Forges 'Age Proof' IBM Center. Legorreta Arquitectos and PHH Neville Lewis work together on a marketing/tech support center. pp. 48-55.

Let Your Fingers Cool Your Workspace. Johnson Controls has come up with a prototype that will put HVAC controls into the hands of each employee. pp. 56-59.

Not By Ergonomics Alone. By Michael J. Smith and Pascale C. Sainfort. Research finds close ties among the physical ergonomics of the office, worker health/safety, and employee control of tasks and electronic monitoring. pp. 60-61.

Stress: The FM's Survival Guide. By Allen Elkin. Facilities managers hit the Top 10 on the stress scale. A savvy stress specialist tells you how to cope when pressures pile up. pp. 62-65.

Keeping Office Air Fit to Breathe. Proactive monitoring may be the surest way to safeguard employees' health from indoor air pollution. pp. 66-69.

Real Estate Execs Relate Asset Management Methods. Roundtable focuses on tracking corporate real estate and reporting its market value. pp. 70-74.

Directory '89: Seventh Annual Update. Alphabetical listing. pp. 79-94. Classified listing. pp. 98-138.

Carpet Update: Off-gas may be more than a nuisance. p. 27.

New Technologies: Why not a company-wide E-mail system? p. 31.

Previews: WestWeek. p. 37.

Editorial: Personal Controls, At Last. p. 47.

MARCH 1989

Kosair Children's Hospital Touts Tech & Toys. Appealing to the child patient, the Louisville hospital was designed by FKP, Inc. pp. 44-51.

A Med Center's Intensive FM Care. Sandra Seim juggles CT scanning and HVAC systems at Rush-Presbyterian-St. Luke's in Chicago. pp. 52-55.

Down With Office Mazes, Up With Flexible Grids. By Darrell de Tienne. Making the office workplace a more workable, and cost-effective environment. pp. 56-59.

Carpet: A Hot Ticket for Hospitals. Carpet in patient areas is esthetically pleasing and cuts maintenance costs. pp. 60-63.

Better Data is a CAFM Bonus, Says User Survey. Preliminary findings of a comprehensive survey of FMs and their applications of CAFM systems. pp. 64-65.

Treat Your Guests to High-Style Seating. Comfort-catering reception rooms and waiting lounges. pp. 66-75.

Real Estate: Landauer Forecast: CBDs may not be hot spots. p. 23.

Lighting Update: Why lighting solutions fall short of the design mark. p. 31.

Previews: IFEx89; Lighting World; OPUG; Canadian FM shows. p. 35.

Editorial: FM is Spanning Oceans. p. 43.

APRIL 1989

Venerable Aetna Revamps With High-Tech. The insurance giant has constructed a generic workstation footprint. pp. 48-55.

Aetna's CAD/CAFM Is Loaded With Muscle. A CAD/CAFM system keeps renovation on track. pp. 56-57.

Good News: The FM & Business Planning Gap is Closing. Six corporate pros examine the state of facilities management, exploring challenges of the 1990s. pp. 58-63.

Plugging Into The High-Wire '90s. Wire management options offer quick connections and trouble-free moves. pp. 64-67.

The Latest In Seating Combines Comfort With Style. Seating lines from task to secretarial to managerial. pp. 68-77.

New Technologies: ISDN is poised for global link via twisted pair. p. 25.

Carpet Update: N.Y. State smoke toxicity testing is a good idea. p. 29.

Association Report: BOMA. p. 37.

Previews: Facilities '89. p. 41.

Editorial: Be Prepared; They're Listening. p. 47.

MAY 1989

Hewlett-Packard Center Stands for Customer Support. Dale Durfee of Hughes & Durfee, Architects, integrates customer service and support departments. pp. 62-69.

Fast Growth Keeps First Chicago Hopping. Robert Olson acquires a full-service FM computer that designs space, inventories, and tracks wire systems. pp. 70-72.

They Drink Beer, Don't They? By Franklin Becker. Exploring the practices and procedures used abroad for possible use here. pp. 73-75.

NEOCON: Hurtling Toward the '90s. Preview of program, products, and floor-by-floor listings. pp. 76-79.

CAFM Printout: When and how to automate maintenance operations. p. 33.

Real Estate: NACORE examines issues in view of political climate. p. 39.

Lighting: Controls cut bills and improve worker output, says study. p. 45.

Previews: BOMA. p. 51.

Editorial: Life in the Farina Bowl. p. 61.

JUNE 1989

Noble Center Turns Sunlight Into Savings. Oklahoma State U's addition is a fully modern research facility and a lab of advanced solar energy techniques. pp. 50-57.

Merging Banks? Expect Real Estate Reshuffle. Real estate departments merged when Bank of New York took over Irving Trust. Robert De Siena details how each is being used. pp. 58-61.

Next Wave for BAS: Diversified Intelligence. The danger of building automation systems operating from a master control is computer collapse. The answer: diversifying the controls. pp. 62-65.

Yes, There Are New Ways to Trim Lighting Bills. Reducing your lighting load. pp. 66-70.

Relocatable Walls: Sorting Out the Jargon. Wall system definitions. p. 71.

Relocatable Walls Source Guide. pp. 72-79.

NEOCON Goes Around the World in Four Days. At the Merchandise Mart, international seminars, keynotes, and furnishings. pp. 80-85.

New Technologies: The lowdown on UPS for steady clean power stream. p. 29.

Carpet Update: Patterns are hot, and it's only the beginning. p. 35.

Previews: ASID conference; Atlanta summer markets. p. 43.

Editorial: Put Out Those Lights! p. 49.

JULY/AUGUST 1989

Sweetening the Deal: Tools of the Trading Room. Seven trading rooms offer an overview of the contemporary trading environment. pp. 50-57.

Salomon Keeps a Tight Rein on Real Estate. Laura Horstman, leasing/administrative manager, keeps on top of investment banking giant's costs. pp. 58-61.

CAFM: It's Poised for Take-Off. User survey proves automation is of great value, even though some users are dragging their heels with low budgets and lame excuses. pp. 62-67.

Carpet's Life-Cycle Cost Is Not Clear-Cut. Accurate life-cycle costing is much more helpful when comparing broadloom and carpet tile costs against churn rate. pp. 68-69.

Support Furniture for the Computer-Equipped Office.

(continued on p. 46)

This Publication is available in Microform.

University Microfilms International

Please send additional information for _____

Name_____

Institution_____

Street_____

City_____

State_____ Zip_____

300 North Zeeb Road
Dept. FDM
Ann Arbor, Mi. 48106

INDEX OF ARTICLES 1989

(continued from p. 44)

A round-up of computer support furniture shows open plan systems. pp. 70-76.

Specifying Products for Safety & Performance. Special BIFMA Report. pp. 39-44.

Real Estate: RPPM enables executive response to change. p. 23.

Lighting Update: Performance vs. cost of electronic ballasts. p. 27.

CAFM Printout: Automation trade shows that bloom in the spring. p. 31.

Previews: CONPAC '89. p. 32.

Editorial: Oh, No! Cannibalism? p. 49.

SEPTEMBER 1989

Winterthur's Tale: Setting the Scene. Leasing a building that's still under construction put Winterthur Swiss Insurance Co. and SCR Design Organization on the fast track. pp. 47-55.

Can Plants Purify Indoor Air? Yes, says NASA. Early tests have shown that plants are capable of removing trace levels of toxic vapors. pp. 56-59.

Global Links are Forged at International FM Symposium. Delegates from around the world delivered papers on the state of facilities management in their countries. pp. 60-61.

Facilities Day Leads the Line-Up for Designer's Saturday. During October 12-14 in New York, the 75 Designer's Saturday members greet facilities managers and corporate office planners. pp. 62-88.

IDCNY Showcase of Events, Exhibits Suit FMs. International Design Center, New York catches design fever during the market week. pp. 90-100.

Design New York '89 Probes Trends and Issues. Showroom seminars and workshops mark the sixth annual interior furnishings market. p. 103.

New Technologies: Time is running out to rid transformers of PCBs. p. 23.

Carpet Update: Cushion use is rising for comfort and performance. p. 25.

Previews: Tenth IFMA conference shows range of FM work. p. 29.

Editorial: Teacher Imitating Student? p. 47.

OCTOBER 1989

American Re's New HQ Ensures Its Future. A $50 million headquarters upscales American Re-Insurance's corporate image in the vastly competitive insurance arena. Designed by Haines Lundberg Waehler. pp. 80-87.

Chrysler Revs Up R&D With Billion Dollar Tech Center. Aiming to be the next decade's leader in car design, the No. 3 automaker is building a research megastructure. pp. 88-93.

Domino's CEO Monaghan Collects the Wright Stuff. Tom Monaghan, Domino's Pizza's CEO, has a multimillion-dollar Frank Lloyd Wright collection. pp. 94-97.

Today's Campbell's Soup Kids Set Model for On-Site Day Care. Campbell's Child Care Center offers employees a convenient location and half-subsidized rates. pp. 98-101.

Your Best Foot Forward: Executive Conference Rooms. Tables, chairs, and AV equipment for executive conference and boardrooms. pp. 102-109.

Survey of the Interior Design Profession. CADD/CAFM is widely used; projects abroad on the upswing. pp. 55-58.

FACILITIES Top 100 Interior Design Firms. New firms appear in the second annual ranking of office design firms. pp. 61-74.

Real Estate: Tax-deferred real estate exchange benefits corporations. p. 26.

Lighting Update: There's more to maintenance than replacing lamps. p. 31.

CAFM Printout: Service bureaus speed the implementation process. p. 33.

Association Report: IFMA's model for FM degree provides guidance. p. 37.

Previews: IFMA Conference; Health Care Symposium; NATA's Unicom; AEC Expo. p. 41.

Editorial: And from Lee Iacocca... p. 70.

NOVEMBER/DECEMBER 1989

Phillips Petroleum Explores People Power. Workplace standards get a workout as Oklahoma's oil giant involves employees in planning its newest office designed by Hellmuth, Obata & Kassabaum. pp. 64-71.

Rockefeller Center Wires Up For the 21st Century. Manhattan's landmark pours $260 million into centralizing and modernizing nearly every aspect of its facilities; air handling and maintenance; card access security and fire safety; and elevator cabs and fiber optics. pp. 72-75.

Protective Treatments for Fabric: The Unfinished Story. Usage of protective fabric finishes has been the subject of debate among designer/specifiers and users. Facilities managers need to know if finishes keep fabrics fresh, or bring on the dirt. pp. 76-77.

CAFM Software Source Guide. Computer-Aided Facilities Management software products are getting the attention of FMs who seek to speed services to their users in a cost-effective manner. pp. 82-89.

Prewired Panel Systems Show Cable Capacity Increase. Workstations require reliable power sources—with increasing cable capacity—and prewired panel systems are the answer for electronic heavy offices. pp. 90-92.

A File for Everything and Everything in Its File. Be it lateral or multi-media, mobile or freestanding, there's no place like a file cabinet for organizing office life. pp. 78-81.

Installation Still Tops List of Office Furniture Dealer Services. How are dealers faring in the tug-of-war brought on by national contracts and direct buying by corporate customers? Our Sixth Annual Survey of Office Dealers indicates a more stabilized market than did last year's dealer poll. pp. 49-51.

FACILITIES Top 100 Office Furniture Dealers. Ranking, based on greatest sales volume, includes new dealers. pp. 53-59.

New Technologies: Unshielded twisted pair can handle data. p. 25.

Carpet Update: Good news: Better style and design. p. 29.

Editorial: The Key Word is Management. p. 63.